The Ferry at Diamond Head was created with bespoke and contemporary gatherings in mind.

The Ferry is a bright, ambient pavilion set within lush botanical style gardens, featuring high-quality timber work, polished concrete floors and modern lighting. Bathed in natural light, the contemporary styling, eco-sensitive construction, large flexible floorplan and purpose-built catering facilities are ideal for all types of gatherings.

everything from yoga, meditation or creative art classes and wellbeing retreats to business meetings, family gatherings and weddings. Bathed in natural light, the contemporary styling, eco-sensitive construction, large flexible floorplan and purpose-built catering facilities are ideal for all types of gatherings. everything from yoga, meditation or creative art classes and wellbeing retreats to business meetings, family gatherings and weddings. The 140m2 indoor space is ideal for up to 70 guests (seated).

... everyone just loved the venue, the town and the sheer natural beauty of the area." So much on offer in one heavenly location... The property offers luxury accommodation, treehouses, visitor bathroom, a quirky cafe/ bar, a kitchen garden and check house, plus creeds, dams and raised walkways. And there's even WiFi, if you really need it. Explore a little and you'll find private forest clearings, a magical fernery garden and magnificent, wide views across the wetlands and the river to the mountain. Contact Peter and Kerry to find out more about how you could make this magical space your own.
